

"Then Job answered the LORD and said: 'I know that You can do everything, and that no purpose of Yours can be withheld from You. You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore, I have uttered what I did not understand, things too wonderful for me, which I did not know.' " - Job 42:1-3 "Who has directed the Spirit of the LORD, or as His counselor has taught Him? With whom did He take counsel, and who instructed Him, and taught Him knowledge, and showed Him the way of understanding?" - Isaiah 40:13,14 Our God is the source of all wisdom and knowledge. There is nothing in this universe that God has not known. He created all things. He knows the beginning and end of all things. Job was a humble man who suffered under the oppression of Satan, and as he contemplated the things that had happened to him when God asked him a series of question, Job was speechless. Job understood that no purpose of God can be withheld from Him and concluded that things were too wonderful for him to comprehend. Our God is a great and mighty God. He knows all things. His purpose will prevail. Our God loved us so much that He gave His Son Jesus Christ to die for us. Let us come to Him and cling to Him through the Lord Jesus Christ. Praise the Lord!
