"For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first." - 1 Thessalonians 4:16 "Looking for the blessed hope and glorious appearing of our great God and Savior Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us, that He might redeem us from every lawless deed and purify for Himself His own special people, zealous for good works." - Titus 2:13,14 Our world represents a rush hour traffic where people go to and fro busy with daily life. Work and family life are very demanding which leaves very little time to ponder on the hope of life. Jesus our Lord promised His disciples that He would return to take them and all believers to the place He is preparing. That day of our Lord descending can occur any day any time, and all believers in the Lord look forward to that day with much hope. The Lord will return, and He will keep His promise just as all other promises He has kept. He will gather us to Himself to be always in His presence. O what a glorious day that will be. So, no matter how busy life gets, let us not lose hope and anticipation of our Lord's return, but be ready always for that day could be today! Praise the Lord!
